Collection

Within the framework of enhancing the financial sustainability of REDF, focus during 2025 was placed on raising the collection efficiency of the direct lending portfolio as one of the strategic pillars of financial performance. Accordingly, services provided to beneficiaries were developed, databases were updated, and collection processes were automated. This was accompanied by providing new payment channels, intensifying collection campaigns, and launching the early repayment discount programme. These collective efforts contributed to raising the collection rate, reducing default rates, and achieving set targets, as showcased in this report through the key loan collection achievements for 2025.
